RE: Maclay Bridge, west of Missoula.

Dear Mr. Schweitzer,

We are pleased to notify you that Maclay Bridge that crosses the Bitterroot River west of Missoula, will be considered by the State Historic Preservation Review Board for nomination to the National Register of Historic Places. The National Register of Historic Places is the Federal government's official list of historic properties worthy of preservation. The nomination is scheduled to be presented at Montana's Review Board's next meeting, the afternoon of September 21 at the Bitterroot River Inn in Hamilton.

The meeting agenda and nomination is posted electronically on the State Historic Preservation Office's website under the National Register of Historic Places page at the link "State Historic Preservation Review Board Meeting" <http://mhs.mt.gov/shpo/register/RBagenda.asp>.

We invite your written comments on the historical, architectural and archaeological significance of this property. Any comments you have will be shared with the board. Please submit any comments to:

Dr. Mark Baumler
State Historic Preservation Officer
Montana Historical Society
1301 E. Lockey
Helena, MT 59620

If you have any questions, please contact me at 444-3647 or via e-mail at jboughton@mt.gov. Thank you for your interest in and support for historic preservation.

Sincerely,

John Boughton
